

March 6, 1975

PRESIDENT: Would you put that in writing so we know what we're voting on, Senator Mahoney?

SENATOR MAHONEY: I'll put it in writing.

PRESIDENT: Seems to the Chair that you're asking for an amendment to the rules. Senator Mahoney.

SENATOR MAHONEY: Mr. President, because we would get tangled up in the suspension of the rules and it would only work for one day and we let it go back to the committee on rules, it would take time. Let me say then that the Speaker and myself are asking this as sort of giving direction in a policy statement.

PRESIDENT: Senator Syas, for what purpose do you rise sir?

SENATOR SYAS: Personal privilege.

PRESIDENT: Would you state the point of privilege to the Chair.

SENATOR SYAS: Yes. I think that due to the fact that it probably is the rules, as Senator Mahoney says . . .

PRESIDENT: Well, what's the point of personal privilege?

SENATOR SYAS: Well I'd like to urge the senate as a gentlemen's and ladies agreement that we comply with the motion of Senator Mahoney without a rule change. We can do that by agreement.

PRESIDENT: That's well taken but it's probably out of order Senator.

SENATOR SYAS: Probably is.

CLERK: Mr. President, Mr. Murphy of the Banking, Commerce and Insurance Committee gives notice that an executive session will be held under the North balcony after adjournment today.

Mr. President, I move we adjourn. Signed, J. W. Burbach.

PRESIDENT: There is a motion that we adjourn. All in favor say aye. Contrary nay. We are adjourned.
